

Community Group Questions

Faithful Presence Here for Good

Acts 2:42-47

1. What stood out to you most from today's passage?
2. The good news of the gospel is both personal and communal. How has the gospel changed your life personally? How has it influenced the way you relate to others?
3. In Acts 2:45 we're told that the early church cared for one another "as any had need." How does being a good listener help us know how to care for people well? What are important characteristics of being a thoughtful listener? How can you improve your listening skills?
4. On Sunday we talked about having a "redemptive imagination." What does it mean to have redemptive imagination? How does redemptive imagination help the church fulfill its purpose?
5. What does it mean to live incarnationally? How did Jesus model incarnational living? What's a step you can take to live incarnationally this week?